Yale Fair and Night Show Was Big Success

LET'S PULL FOR AN ANNUAL SHOW BACKED BY LOCAL PEOPLE.--EVERYBODY WANTS TO SEE IT

Saturday evening last marked the closing of the first fair held in St. Clair county in 12 years, and it is 24 years since Yale had one of her own. This year's doings demonstrated beyond doubt the fact that this community can and will support an annual event of this kind, and a movement to get the organization going should be started at once.

About four weeks ago Messrs. Oliver and Powers leased the fair grounds from Archie Ludington and immediately got busy planning for the big show, and by an extensive advertising campaign and tireless working they succeeded in putting on an exhibition far beyond the expectations of the citizens of Yale.

Every day brought crowds of people from far and near, and all seemed to be satisfied with the first attempt, and most of them came back next day.

While the time spent in getting up the fair was far too short to allow exhibitors of live stock and farm produce a chance to get anything in shape for exhibits, there were a number of cattle, horses, etc., on display, and this fact also shows that the farmers of this vicinity are anxious for a place near home to display the "pride of their farms."

As advertised, Friday was the big day. The Port Huron Chamber of Commerce brought an enthusiastic crowd of boosters up from the county metropolis numbering about 250, and the people from this locality entered into the spirit of the occasion, and it was estimated that over 5,000 people went through the gates on this day.

The program consisted of base ball, foot ball, horse races, balloon ascension and everything.

In the foot ball game between the Yale and Brown City H. S. teams, our boys won by the score of 16 to 0. It was a hard fought battle, and the game was won by the best bunch.

As usual, when Yale and Emmett clashes in a base ball game, there was the same amount of rag-chewing over decisions, etc., that always comes up, but the best thing about it was that at the end of the ninth inning the score was 6-7 with Yale on the long end of the tally sheet. Where our boys were lame was in the fact that they didn't have a book-keeper. John Peter Patrick Grace was the whole thing, and he made his figures show nine where it should be eleven, for both teams went past the post and played eleven innings, the Emmett team wallowing our boys by a safe margin in the overtime stunt. But the visitors took the long end of the purse, and to date have made no apology or excuse. Johnston was the visiting slab-artist for a time but he finally retired in favor of Bricker, the Avoca "phenom." He didn't seem to cut much figure in the game, either. Gough occupied the mound for Yale until the gang got after him, then Johnston from Peck finished the game. Counting from the place the game should have stopped Yale put a big crimp in the claim by either the Capac or Emmett teams for the St. Clair county championship, defeating Capac Wednesday and Emmett Friday.

There were two horse races on Friday, a free-for-all pace and a running race, and every heat was sure a race.

The Berville band furnished music the first three days, and the boys certainly have a dandy little band.

The Henderson Juvenile Kiltie Band of London furnished plenty of Scotch piping and dancing, and this troupe of youngsters is always well received in Yale.

The balloon ascension each evening was the best ever seen in this locality.

The only place a cog slipped in the big program was in the display of fireworks. Something went wrong in this department, and there were none, but everything else was up to schedule.

At the close of the fair on Saturday evening, a Chevrolet touring car was given away, the winner being J. Powell, of Reese.

One good feature of the fair was the co-operation of the mayor of the city, the sheriff's force and the state police. This kept the grounds and city practically free from boot-legging and the usual "no-chance" games. Of course there was some booze on the grounds,--some of these rough guys would want to take a bottle to their mother's funeral--but there wasn't much. Sheriff Maines was here with four deputies, and there were four state policemen, besides our regular force.

Messrs. Hildore, Oliver and Powers put on a good show and made a success of it, and we can see no reason why our own business men, citizens and the farmers of the locality cannot get together and go them one better by organizing a Yale Agricultural society, and give the people a real fair every fall. Let's try.

Canadian Money at Par

Canadian money is accepted at par for the first time since September, 1917. During the last five years it has made many spectacular changes, jumping to 17 per cent in February, 1920, falling back to less than nine in March, rising again to nearly 16 in June dropping to nine and finally climbing to its peak, 19 per cent, in December, 1920.

During the early months of 1921 the discount was erratic, changing every week or two from 13 to 12 and back again. Since November 1921, however, the drop has been steady, until the zero point was reached. For months the discount has been so small that Canadian money has been accepted at par in most business places.

In August and September, '14, due to the outbreak of the war, American money was discounted one per cent in Montreal banks, records in the Federal & Commercial Savings bank show.

The foreign exchange department of the Royal Bank of Canada at Montreal publishes a chart showing the relations of American and Canadian money graphically for the entire period between July 14, 1914, and December 31, 1921.

WHAT THIS COUNTRY NEEDS

What this country needs is not a new birth of freedom, but the old-fashioned $2 lower berth.

What this country needs isn't more liberty, but less people who take liberties with our liberty.

What this country needs is not a job for every man, but a real man for every job.

What this country needs isn't to get more taxes from the people but for the people to get more from the taxes.

What this country needs is not more miles of territory but more miles to the gallon.

What this country needs is more tractors and less detracors.

What this country needs isn't more young men making speed, but more young men planting spuds.

What this country needs is more paint on the old place and less paint on the young face.

What this country needs isn't a lower rate of interest on money, but a higher interest in work.

What this country needs is to follow the footsteps of the fathers instead of the footsteps of the dancing masters.

DIED AT BUFFALO

The body of Miss Mary Leonard was brought to Yale Saturday night from Buffalo where she died at the age of 50 years of cancer of the stomach.

"QUEEN OF SHEBA" BOOKED FOR RUN AT PRINCESS THEATRE

"Queen of Sheba," the William Fox super-special which created a tremendous sensation during its run at a prominent Broadway, New York Theatre, will come to the Princess Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday for a 2-days' run. Metropolitan critics described the picture as a marvel of beauty, color and dramatic force and as a spectacle unsurpassed in magnificence. All wrote with wondering approval of the pageantry attending the arrival of the Queen of Sheba at King Solomon's court, and declared the chariot race cheered by 5,000 spectators to be one of the most thrilling scenes ever shown on the screen.

"Queen of Sheba" was a year in the making, after Virginia Tracy had written the story following a long search of volumes and documents for information regarding the world's most beautiful woman. The production was directed by J. Gordon Edwards.

The role of the Queen of Sheba is played by Betty Blythe; Fritz Lieber, noted Shakespearean actor, is King Solomon; Claire de Lorez is Queen Amareth, wife of Solomon; and Nell Craig is seen in the role of the Princess Vashti, Sheba's opponent in the chariot race.

From all reports, based upon the New York run, "Queen of Sheba" promises to be the screen sensation of the season.

A Word to Subscribers

Being greatly in need of cash to carry on our business of publishing a newspaper and also to buy food and clothing for the family, fuel to keep warm the coming winter, and the many items where money is used, we appeal to delinquent Expositor subscribers to please come to our rescue.

Look at the label on your paper and see if it is paid up to 1922. If not, we will thank you to either send the subscription by draft or postoffice money order, or call at the Expositor office and settle up.

This notice has no reference to those who are paid up--only the ones in arrears. Please respond promptly to this call for cash.

Money to Loan--On first-class class farm security. Five year's loan for $2,000 or over at 5 1/2 per cent with two years' prepayment plan. Full information. L. J. Miller, Box 81, Yale.

A FAMILY PICNIC

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Adams, east and north of Yale, was the scene of a happy get-together family occasion on Sunday last, when members of the Rapley clan and a few guests all to the number of forty-six, gathered there for a picnic dinner and a social time together.

The weather was ideal and the big family surely enjoyed a wonderfully pleasant time.

Besides the Yale relatives, those from out of town were: J. A. Rapley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Green of North Branch; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hill, Avoca; Mr. and Mrs. George Hull, Fargo; Alex Adams and family and Will Rapley, Port Huron; Arthur Dennis and family, from Kinde.

For Sale--Eleven spring calves, good ones. Wm. Hyde, route 1, Yale, Mich.

Scott, East China; Michael McInnery, Emmett.

FOOT BALL TEAM WINS FROM BROWN CITY

Last Friday the Yale boys met Brown City and won from them with a score of 16 to 0.

The game was played on the fair grounds and a large crowd saw the contest. The Brown City team put up a good line of resistance, but could not stop the repeated line smashes made by Yale's backfield.

Yale was poor in her forward passing, although one or two successful attempts were made.

The Yale team will be playing about for the next four or five weeks, and after that all the games will be played on the home gridiron. This week Friday they go to Brown City for the return game.

REPORT UNTRUE

It seems that the statement that the Independent Sugar Co. at Marine City, operated by Handy Bros. was in the hands of a receiver was without foundation in fact, although the report was telephoned to the village and has been common talk for the past 60 days. The 1922 contracts have been taken over by the Owosso Sugar Co., and that concern will have charge of the local situation this year. The Times editor feels that the Messrs. Handy Bros. have been unjustly treated in publication of the article in question and we are more than glad to make the correction.--Peck Times.

RECEPTION

The Methodist Episcopal church people held a pleasant reception in the church parlors on Monday evening for the returned pastor, Rev. Mumby and wife, and for teachers and new members of the congregation. During the evening a brief, pleasing program was given and a lunch served.

Mrs. Donnenworth Improving

The attached clipping is taken from the Haxton (Colo.) Harvest of Sept. 21:--

Mrs. H. H. Donnenworth underwent a major operation at the home of Dr. Kinzie in Huxton on Wednesday morning. At last reports the patient was making splendid recovery and was resting as easily as could be expected. Mrs. Donnenworth is the wife of Rev. Donnenworth, pastor of the Dailey community church. She had been in failing health for some time and it was finally decided that an operation was necessary to insure her return to normal health.

Dailey, Colo., Sept. 27, 1922

Mr. J. A. Menzies, Yale, Mich.

Dear Sir:--I am herewith enclosing check for two dollars to keep Expositor coming another year. We surely appreciate its weekly visits. Wish it might be possible for you to get a little more news from the Roseburg community.

Mrs. D. is improving nicely at this writing and we expect that she will have recovered sufficiently by the last of next week to be brought home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bricker arrived here Saturday afternoon enroute to Los Angeles, Calif. The speedometer showed 1388 miles from Yale to Dailey and they found the roads in excellent condition. From here they have still about 1500 miles to the coast with good roads most of the way. Best regards to all, Herbert Donnenworth

CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP

Melvin, Oct. 3--The Opera house, owned for the past 17 yrs. by Andrew J. Laidlaw, passed into the hands of Victor Mattison in a transaction which took place here Monday morning.

Laidlaw is taking over the Mattison building now used as a hardware store. The Laidlaw block has two stores on the first floor, and the second is used as an opera house. The Harding & Hallman drug store and the Chas. Parkin general store are the tenants in the block taken over by Mr. Mattison. There will be no change in the second story at present, so the village will still have an auditorium for public gatherings.

It was stated that the drug store would remain as it is. In case Mr. Mattison moves his stock into the west side of the building the general store may be located in the building now used as the hardware.
